Christopher L. Nichols (“Chris”) has been in private practice since May 2002. He received his J.D. from Texas Tech University School of Law in 2001 and his B.A. from Baylor University in 1996.

Mr. Nichols is the principal and managing attorney of The Nichols Firm, PLLC, in Houston where he focuses on representing municipalities and economic development corporations in all local government matters. In addition to his local government and economic development practice, Mr. Nichols’ practice also focuses on community association law, construction law, and general civil litigation.

Mr. Nichols regularly speaks at Texas Municipal League/Texas City Attorneys Association Conferences on issues ranging from land use to municipal revenue sources.
