

Caaren Skrobarczyk

Caaren Skrobarczyk has over 25 years of experience promoting the mission of the Texas Water Development Board through infrastructure financial assistance, project oversight, marketing, regulatory compliance, loan underwriting, and water planning. She is currently serving as Regional Manager of one of six multi-disciplined teams in the Division of Regional Water Program Development. She earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Finance from Baylor University.